

Alcantara® for dei SVALDI

The brand dei SVALDI, synonymous with technology and innovation, was born in 2007 after its debut at the international show “Luxury and Yachts”, where a collection of super luxury carbon - fibre shoes was first presented. Award-winner at the prestigious event “Excellence in Veneto” for having mixed high technology with Italian handicraft, now it in collaboration with Alcantara®, a new fashion project, in which innovation and Italian couture are combined together to create a women’s collection that is revolutionary for its use of highly technological materials. Such materials are environmentally friendly and offer excellent performances.

Thanks to Alcantara®’s research and technology, it has been possible to create items of clothing that are unique for their texture, appearance, lightness and comfort: super light for the summer or with stretch fabrics that guarantee the best wearability and resistance.

Sharing the spirit of innovation with Alcantara®, Design Studio dei SVALDI creates elegant tailor-made clothes that are extremely feminine and classic, designed to last in time, in accordance with the resistance and durability of the materials used.

The buttons, rivets and zips used are gold-plated and stitches are visible for details. All products are handcrafted with a special attention to the deluxe finishes.

dei SVALDI Fall Winter 2012 collection includes various lines :

- the classical cashmere knitwear with Alcantara® details;
- the sportish style in denim with Alcantara® details;
- the super chic line entirely made of Alcantara® to offer the best in terms of breathability, comfort and softness.
